

2.13 Taking Images and Recording Video in Library and During Virtual Library Programs

2.13.1 By Community Members

Photographs or videos may be taken in the public areas of the library to the extent that doing so does not disturb others' use of the library. Equipment may not block walkways or create a hazard. Photographers must respect others' wishes to not be photographed and/or filmed. If a child or children might be in a picture or video, the photographer must obtain permission from the parent, legal guardian, or caregiver before taking the picture or video. Taking photos/video of specific, copyrighted (or otherwise protected) materials for the purpose of redistribution is prohibited. The library makes no guarantee of library virtual program participants' privacy and cannot control other participants recording or taking screenshots of the program, which may include any information on screen. Virtual program participants are responsible for using an alias for log-in and/or covering or turning off their camera to protect their own privacy.

2.13.2 By Library Staff and Its Affiliates and Partners

Attendance at Downers Grove Public Library programs and events constitutes consent to be photographed and/or filmed for use in print and/or electronic publicity for the Downers Grove Public Library. The library makes no guarantee of library virtual program participants' privacy, including name, personally identifying information, and likeness, due to personal settings and program host requirements. Other than in virtual programs, names or personal identifying information will not be used without permission of the subject, parent, legal guardian, or caregiver. Participants may opt out by informing the library staff coordinating the program or event.
