The Long Shadow Documentary
Monday, June 21 – 28 2021, Available All-Day
The Long Shadow traces slavery’s history from America’s founding up through its insidious ties to racism today. From New Orleans to Virginia, Mississippi and Canada, The Long Shadow follows two white Southern filmmakers as they travel the roads of oppression and suppression to reveal the connections of slavery and strong-arm Southern politics to the current racial strife in America. The film is a disturbing story about the lingering human cost of ignorance, intolerance, and inaction in the US, casting a long shadow over our national identity and imperfect democracy. Watch the film here: dgpl.fyi/Long-Shadow. Virtual Program.
