

Life in the 2020s

Submissions

Terms and Conditions

A. The donated materials are an original work created and owned by donor as the sole legal and beneficial owner thereof, with good and marketable title thereto, free and clear of all encumbrances. From and after the submission to the library, the library, will have the same good and marketable title to the submittals, free and clear of all encumbrances and will be entitled to and enjoy all the same rights and benefits of the submittals as enjoyed by donor immediately prior to the donation. All copyrights to the donated material, retained by donor. I give permission to the Downers Grove Public Library to use, reproduce, display, share, and publish my submission for educational and promotional purposes without compensation. This may include making submissions accessible via a physical display in the library, on the library's website, and/or through regional and national projects, such as the Illinois Digital Archives, the Internet Archive, or Digital Public Library of America. B. Donor, without compensation, hereby irrevocably grants, transfers, conveys, assigns and sets over to the library, and its successors and assigns the entire right, title, and interest in perpetuity in and to the donated materials in the United States and worldwide including without limitation all contents thereof, all adaptations, derivations and versions thereof, and the unencumbered right to exercise such rights in all media and by any manner or means, whether now or hereafter devised. Donor retains all rights under United States Code Title 17 (the Copyright Act of 1976 and subsequent amendments) in the donated materials, except as such rights are limited as set forth herein. C. Donor hereby grants to the library a worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, transferable, sublicensable, exclusive license to use, display, exhibit, prepare derivative works of, distribute copies of, photograph, video, and otherwise reproduce images of the submittals, and the right to enforce the foregoing. D. Donor unconditionally waives all rights, claims, and causes of action relating to any moral rights and/or non-assignable rights in the submittals, including but not limited to the Visual Artists Rights Act of 1990, as amended, together with all related past, present, and future causes of action related to the submittals, including, but not limited to, any and all rights of approval or consent with respect to any modification, alteration, disassembly, removal, distortion, or destruction of the submittals.